

Film animation workshop

Two mornings of creative and fun activities for primary school age children. Work together with a professional film making tutor to produce your very own animated adventure films. Workshops include group activities leading to storyboarding, designing and making backdrops and characters, and film making.

Suitable for children aged 6-11. 24€ for the two sessions including all materials.

Bryony Stephen is a film production graduate who has worked for seven years as a film making and animation tutor. Bryony was Head of Education for the BFI London Film Festival and has worked with BAFTA and the Barbican as well as with numerous schools, community groups and cinemas around London. Also a qualified and experienced EFL teacher she currently teaches and runs workshops throughout the UK and Europe.
